Training Courses a Success

Over 300 Arrowmen attended training sessions and seminars on Saturday to learn more about the Order of the Arrow. Information learned from these courses will allow each Arrowman to better serve his lodge and home unit. With courses ranging from Artwork in Patches to Dance Team Instruction to the Lodge Simulator, the Arrowmen of Florida experienced a truly exceptional training event. Jeff DeLigio, host lodge training chairman, is to be commended for his fine work on the Section Seminars staff. Many thanks go out to all the instructors and delegates who made the training possible. Be sure to use the information learned back in your own council.

Volleyball Tournament was Loads O' Fun

With spirit and enthusiasm pouring from the millions of fans, five lodges competed in the Section's first volleyball tournament. Echockotee, Osceola, Timuquan, O-Shot-Caw, and Seminole lodges all competed in Saturday's recreational volleyball event. Though the matches were close, Seminole Lodge defeated Echockotee in the final round. Thanks to everyone who helped make the competition so exciting.

Saturday Night Live Brings Down the House

In one of the most spirited and comical shows in the history of SE-1, last evening's performance of Saturday Night Live was truly entertaining. After an opening segment by Chris Nash, Section Chief Brian Ferber kicked the show off with a monologue giving his impressions of the "Section People." With the assistance of Stu Jones, Carl Bleiler, Steve Ferreira, and several other dedicated SE-1 Arrowmen, the high-capacity crowd had a very entertaining evening. Following the show, Timuquan Lodge hosted an Indian Pow-Wow where our Section's Indian admirers got the opportunity to strut their stuff and shake their feathers. Overall, Saturday night was a fantastic cap for a fabulous weekend.

Council of Chiefs Votes to Kill Seminars

The Council of Chiefs yesterday voted not to hold a Section Seminars in 1990. The very close 7-6 vote came about due to several factors, the primary being the National Leadership Seminar scheduled for November of next year. The result will be that Section SE-1 will only have one statewide event: the Section Conclave to be hosted by Timuquan Lodge at Sand Hill Scout Reservation. Other business of the Council of Chiefs included approving various competitions, the schedule and budget for the '90 Conference.

Trading Post has Bargain Basement

The Seminars Trading Post is having an inventory reduction sale designed to save you money. The Trading Post is located today in the Dining Hall. Come by to see the new bargain prices on event patches and mugs, and the super Section backpatch. The event hat pins have already sold out. Make sure you get the chance to buy some of these very special items while they're on the cheap. You can't leave camp with money in your pockets. Special thanks go out to Barry Edwards, Keith Sales, John Emblidge, Keith Shotzberger, and everyone else from Timuquan and Seminole Lodges for thier help in the trading post this weekend.

Sunday Morning Activities

- 7:30 Breakfast in the Dining Area
- 9:00 Religious Service in the Council Ring
- 9:30 Section Meeting in the Council Ring
- Campsite Clean-up and Check-out in Saunders Hall

Have a Safe Trip Home! Buckle up, it's the law!

Closing Thoughts from the Vice Chief

Dear Arrowmen:

I'd like to thank everyone for coming to the 1989 Section Seminars & Council of Chiefs. This weekend proved to be a successful one, with Arrowmen learning many useful things in the training courses. It is my desire that you take this information back to your lodge and your unit in an attempt to implement the things that you have learned. Each of us came to the weekend with high goals and aspirations. Hopefully, we have all achieved these goals. I look forward to seeing each of you at the 1990 Conclave. Seek to Preserve a Cheerful Spirit.

In Service,

Kevin Mayeux
