“Who Among Us Will Make the Journey?”

Greeting Brothers,

As 2012 draws to a close we as a section have converged upon Camp Miles of the Great Osceola Lodge for a weekend of training and fellowship unlike any other. The object of this weekend is simple, for those who made the journey we will offer some of the best training in the nation. The sincere hope being that Arrowmen can return to their home lodges inspired to be better officers, followers and most importantly Arrowmen. This weekend will also be a fantastic opportunity for brothers from around this section to fellowship and build important intra-lodge friendships so that we as a section can be more united than ever before. The theme of this weekend is “Who Among Us Will Make the Journey?” This theme doesn’t refer to the long drive some of you (yours truly included) have made to get here. This theme refers to who among us as a section wishes to become a better leader, who among us will go the distance to serve their brothers? Is it you? In addition to all of the top notch training going on the Section’s legislative body (The Council of Chiefs) will be meeting this weekend as well. We will discuss the upcoming 2013 Section Conference at the Mighty Seminole Lodge along with many other subjects to improve this section. My brothers while I would prefer you take advantage of the excellent training offered this weekend, know that you are always welcome to observe the happenings of the CoC for they will pertain directly to you. In conclusion my brothers I and my officers are very excited for this weekend and we look forward to seeing you around Camp Miles!
